

I have enjoyed the absence of solicitation calls since joining the Indiana Telephone Privacy program. I strongly oppose any alteration in its current guidelines. If businesses that I have a relationship with can send me information by mail. I do not need to receive a phone call, since it most likely will be a sales call, not a matter of customer service. Thank you.